Announcement

MORRIS FINANCIAL CONCEPTS, INC. VOLUNTEERS AT LOCAL HABITAT FOR HUMMANITY HOUSE

For Immediate Release

Jun 13, 2009 –Mt. Pleasant, SC. –Morris Financial Concepts, a nationally recognized fee-only financial planning firm in Mt. Pleasant, recently provided volunteer labor at a Habitat for Humanity house under construction on Bobo Rd in Mt. Pleasant. The firm's staff met early on a hot Saturday morning to provide a helping hand on the most recent house Habitat For Humanity is building in East Cooper. The MFC family spent the day working on siding, roofing, and trim work to help move the house toward completion.

East Cooper Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit, non-denominational housing organization that works with people from across the country, around the globe, and from all walks of life, to develop communities for people in need by building homes. The goal to eliminate poverty housing is based on the conviction that every man, woman and child should have a simple, decent, affordable place to live in dignity and safety. East Cooper Habitat for Humanity is an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International and serves the communities east of the Cooper River in South Carolina.

East Cooper Habitat for Humanity was founded in 1990, in the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo. Using donations from several area churches, numerous enthusiastic volunteers and a gift of land from the town of Mount Pleasant, the first two East Cooper Habitat homes were constructed. Subsequently, more lots were purchased and more houses built. To date, they have completed 57 homes.
